

Do not mourn for me for I am not without hope

Cry for the sinner who lives, but all the while is dead

What I am going through is temporary.
Jesus is with me in all things.
He has been faithful to answer my petitions.

God Knows what we will do in all situations
even before we know what we will do.
Like a good father he wants us to look at the situation, try to do our best with it, according to his word.

Sometimes I am not quite capable of using his word,
and applying it to my life.
Then like any child who loves and adores their Father
I go to him and I say to him "Father I know not what to do."
I let him know what I am feeling, how much it hurts,
and how very very scared I am.

The hardest thing is to say that his will be done for my life.
I want to live to see many things. J.T. growing up, getting married, having children of his own. "Father if thou be willing remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done" Luke 22:42

Saying these words to God at this point is very scary...
Saying let your will be done does not mean in any way that I am giving up. I have just put my full faith in God. I have way to much life to live to stop now.
I have been placed here for a reason. I will fight the good fight and stand on faith.

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a re-warder of them that diligently seek Him.
