

Earline Spear

88, a resident of Lincoln, Arkansas, passed away September 25, 2010 at the home of her son in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. She was born August 26, 1922 near Marlow, Oklahoma, the daughter of Alvin and Jesse Kilgore Brown.

Earline's parents moved their family to Lincoln, Arkansas, in 1938. Earline married Alva Spear on October 27, 1939 in her senior year of high school at Lincoln High.

She worked in a grocery store in her younger days and retired from Franklin Electric in Siloam Springs after working there eighteen years.

Earline was a faithful member of the Summers Missionary Baptist Church where members and friends recently honored her and her close friend, Lois Norvell, with a birthday party for their 88th and 92nd birthdays, respectively.

She was preceded in death by her parents, all six of her siblings, and her husband, Alva, of 63 years.

Earline was a Proverbs 31 Woman. "Her children arise up and call her blessed..."

Alva and Earline were blessed with three sons: Randall Spear and his wife, Anna, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; David Spear and his wife, Karen, of Sutton, Alaska; and Dennis Spear and his wife, Twyla, of Lincoln, Arkansas; seven grandchildren: Randy, John, Mandy, Marc, Justin, Dana and Jessica; and twelve great-grandchildren.

APPRECIATION

Handwritten note on the inside back cover of Earline's Bible

I FIRMLY PROMISE YOU

Someday our last goodbyes on Earth will all be spoken and Journey of Life will be through.
But before we say goodbye and the Chain of Life is broken,
I will make you this promise true.

I firmly promise you that I'll meet you by the river
On the banks of that evergreen shore.
Where our hearts will never break
And our lips will never quiver for the friends that have gone on before.

We'll live where flowers bloom by the bright and shining river and our Spirits will sorrow no more.
May God's protecting grace and love be with us ever
Till we gather on Heaven's shore.

I firmly promise you that I'll meet you by the river!!!
