

Patsy Lee Stanfill

86, a resident of Wagoner, Oklahoma, passed away February 10, 2007 in Wagoner, Oklahoma. She was born January 10, 1921 in Adair County, Oklahoma, the daughter of Gilbert and Robe Rogers Perse.

Patsy was the eternal optimist and brought laughter and love to everyone she met and knew. She loved music, especially piano, guitar and singing, which were woven throughout her entire life. Patsy shared her wisdom without judging and was sought for her advice from cooking beans to mothering. She leaves behind a host of friends who will be forever better for having known her.

She was truly was our sunshine.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Marshall, Willard, and Willie Perse; two sisters, Bonnie Ricardo and Zola Reynolds.

Survivors include her husband Vernon Eugene Stanfill of the home; one son, Gilbert Stanfill and wife Robin of Fayetteville, Arkansas; one daughter, Deborah Ann Stanfill and husband Phillip York of Hulbert, Oklahoma; seven grandchildren, Alexa Stanfill, Michael Glidewell, Jeremy Charboneau, LJ York, Michelle York, Clint York, and Sam York; and her little buddies, Bella, Dude and Petie Pie.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Stanfill family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many acts of kindness, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

MISS ME

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
And miss me, but let me go!

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It is a part of the Master's plan,
Just a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Just go to the friends we know;
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
And miss me, but let me go.
