

Hare Delafield Deane-Stuart

March 29, 1949 - October 20, 2023

Hare passed away peacefully at his home in Prairie Grove, Arkansas. He was the son of Disque D. Deane, Sr. and Anne Shepherd (Delafield) Stuart of New York.

He will be missed by his beloved wife Lidia Stuart whom were married in 2009 in Eureka Springs, Arkansas. Preceded in death by his wife of 28 years, Kathleen Stuart of Minnesota. Hare had 5 children: Andrew (Aimie), William (Melissa), Brian, Jessica (Thomas), Amanda (Kevin), and 2 stepchildren: Juilia (Andrew) and Natasha. He had 12 grandchildren, 4 brothers, 4 sisters, and many nieces and nephews.

Hare served in the United States Marine Corp. He was a lifelong member of the Delafield Family Association and proud of his heritage. Hare's entrepreneurial spirit and creative mind resulted in many businesses and accomplishments. He enjoyed plants, animals, traveling to new places, history, politics, and mentoring others around him. Hare had an unyielding thirst for knowledge which he implemented into new ideas and opportunity. He was never shy to share his opinions and impacted many he encountered in his life as a visionary leader.

"Who knows what's going on in the world today?" was a common question Hare would ask at the family dinner table to initiate inquisitive conversation. He had a genuine talent of connecting with people at an individual level along with big-picture perspective.

Hare was an independent thinker, passionate about pursuing new ventures while preserving his family legacy and core values.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven -
A Time for sowing,
a time for reaping,
A time for sharing,
a time for caring,
A time for loving,
a time for giving,
A time for remembering,
a time for parting,
You have made everything beautiful in its time
For everything you do remains forever.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place,
He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful.
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering;
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered, "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.
Although you are gone from our sight,
we will keep you in our hearts until some day the Lord will say it is our time to depart.
