

Carmyn Leigh Guenther Thomas
48, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away July 22, 2021 near Winslow, Arkansas.

She was born February 28, 1973 in Little Rock, Arkansas, the daughter of Semmie John and Rebecca Sue Tolliver Guenther Jr.

There was never a dull moment when Carmyn was around. She made us all laugh and cry. Carmyn always said she needed her own reality tv show and we could not help but agree with her.

She earned an associates degree in liberal arts from Northwest Arkansas Community College and always loved to learn.

Preceded in death by her father, Semmie John Guenther Jr. her grandfathers, Semmie Guenther Sr., Gene Tolliver, Herman DePriest, and Malcolm 'Buddy' Milligan, grandmothers Aileen Tolliver, Nina Guenther, and Mary Pope.
