

Judy Lou Tincher

Age 79, a resident of Fayetteville, Arkansas, passed away Sunday, November 17, 2024 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. She was born September 24, 1945 in Fayetteville, Arkansas, the daughter of Ray and Irene (Mitchell) McCoy.

Judy was known for her generous spirit, often providing guidance and acting as a motherly figure to many. Judy had a rich life filled with various interests that kept her joyous and active. She was an avid reader, always with a new book at hand. Her love for cooking allowed her to host countless dinners, sharing her recipes and joy with family and friends. Judy also found pleasure in crocheting, creating beautiful pieces for her loved ones. Watching game shows, especially those hosted by Steve Harvey, was one of her favorite pastimes. Above all, spending time with her grandchildren brought her immense happiness and fulfillment.

While Judy's life was private and simple, her impact on those around her was profound. Known for her warm advice and nurturing demeanor, she will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters Janie Donahou and Barbara Yell, and one granddaughter Araya Hope Parsons.

Survivors include her two daughters Rhonda Parsons and husband John, and Teresa Wilson and husband Billy all of Fayetteville, Arkansas; six grandchildren Michael and Shannon Wilson of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Matthew Wilson of Fayetteville, Arkansas, Sara and Branson Lawson of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, Jaden Parsons and Aleah Parsons both of Fayetteville, Arkansas; one great grandson James Sanford Lawson.

MOTHER'S LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
