In Times Like These . . .

In times like these, we need each other. In a time we lost you, we didn't know what to do. You were a joy to have around, you always lit up the room, your smile would brighten any day.

In times like these, we could use your laughter and your warming hugs. You were the best to encourage others, and you always knew what to do. We could use your Godly counsel, but yours always was the best.

In times like these, you would simply smile. You always found your silver line. You never seemed to frown, cuz that was just your way.

In times like these, we're used to looking to you, but you're no where to be found. You were such an example for all of us. I ask myself, "What would Rachel do? Would she want us down and crying?" It finally came to me what she would do in times like these:

In times Like these she would look to her Heavenly Father, the one that saves her soul, the one that gave her life, joy, peace, but most of all. He gave her his comfort. So let us do as Rachel did and instead of asking "Why?", let's ask God if He'll give us what he gave Rachel in her time of need . . . His wonderful Comfort.

Cherish Moss

Rachel,

We love you and will miss you so much. We know you are happy in the presence of your Savior. We can't wait to see you again on the streets of Glory in the presence of our Heavenly King.

Love you Rach!
