

L. V. Vickery

Age 87, a lifetime resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas went to be with Jesus on January 1, 2025. He was born December 24, 1937 in Cove Creek, Arkansas to Charles "Link" Lincoln Vickery and Ollie Bell Phillips Vickery.

He accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior in 1973. It became his life long mission to be an honest, faithful, diligent servant of the Lord! His heart and passion were to preach God's word and lead others to Christ. Everyone who came in contact with him knew that he loved Jesus and that he loved them. He served in his community whenever there was a need. He was a pastor for over 46 years mostly at Liberty 86 Church where he served until 2022.

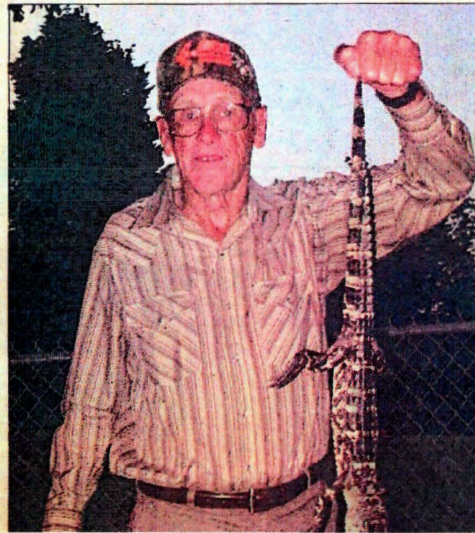

His hobbies included deer hunting, fishing, and woodworking. He loved to challenge himself to build things out of stuff that people would not normally use. He was a man of many talents!

He was a Jack of all trades. Over the years he operated a dozer, a skidder for logging, and a bucket truck for trimming trees. He worked at Kelly Canning Co. for years doing various jobs. He retired from the University of Arkansas after working 17 years in the garage and for the grounds crew. Retirement allowed him more time to devote to ministry.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers CL Vickery and Rue Vickery and three sisters Lillian Barnes, Oma Bennett, and Norma Brockman.

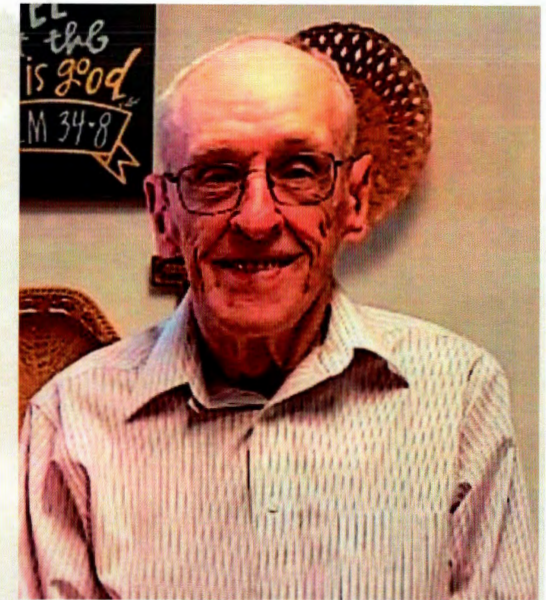

He is survived by his wife of 67 years Lorene Vickery, three daughters, Betty (Jim) Sargent of Strickler, Arkansas, LeAnn (Byron) Suggs, of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, and Susan (Toby) Slinkard of Fayetteville, Arkansas. Five granddaughters, Cari (Mark) Burnett of Farmington, Arkansas, Libby (Wyatt) Wagner of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Brianna Suggs of Arlington, Virginia, Lauren (Garrett) Sims of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, and Sophia Slinkard of Fayetteville, Arkansas. Four great grandchildren, Calloway Burnett, Wyndon Wagner, Weston Wagner, and Amelia Sims. One brother, Olan Vickery of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, and several nieces and nephews.

Dad

He was a simple man in lots of ways
But he made the most of all his days,
Whether he was working or just having fun
He enjoyed being outdoors and in the sun,
Hunting and fishing was his game
He earned two triple trophies to his name,
He was a jack of all trades and master of some You never knew what he'd come up with when the day was done,
He had quite the skill with a piece of wood
Whether a hope chest or a table, each was good,
Many were made out of cedar and designed to shine
To give a family member, they were mighty fine,
He always wore a smile, and was happy as could be Especially when he saw his precious family,
He could be the life of the party and pop a few jokes
And even loved it when you returned the poke,
There wasn't much that he wouldn't try
And at times with his hands, he could catch a fly,
He was known in his community for all things good
Bringing help to everyone that he possibly could,
He'd share the coat right off his back
Or even give you a Mountain Dew from his six pack,
A man full of wisdom he wanted you to know
To learn life lessons and help you grow,
Being a reflection of Christ for all to see Following that path, he wanted you to be,
His heart and passion was to serve the Lord
Teaching the gospel in one accord,
Leaving a legacy of faith and love
That comes from only the Father above,
He knew the Bible from front to back
To find any scripture you needed he had the knack,
He did his best to put God first
Even when life was hard and at its worst,
He set a Godly example for each of us girls
So that we could be a light to others in this dark world,
The memories we have we'll always hold dear
Even though our dad is no longer here,
A better place he's gone to be
But he left behind a great legacy!

*We love you Dad
