

MOTHER'S LOVE

God surely knew the world would need

A gentle loving touch,

When He created mother love

That warms our hearts so much.

He must have known that children

Would need a guiding hand,

Someone who'd always be there

To care and understand.

God must have known our hearts would need

A special kind of cheer

When He endowed a mother's face

With smiles that would endear.

Of all the gifts that God does send

From His heavenly realm above,

There is none that is more precious

Than that of mother's love.

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

APPRECIATION

Celebrating THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF

June Carolyn Young

August 18, 1935
August 30, 2025

June Carolyn Young, age 90, of West Fork, Arkansas, formerly of Prairie Grove and Hope, Arkansas, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 30, 2025. She was born on August 18, 1935, in Davis, Oklahoma, to William Riley Jolly and Dove (Field) Jolly.

A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and woman of faith, June's life was centered around her love for God, her family, her church, and helping others. She shared nearly 60 wonderful years of marriage with her beloved husband, Jack Floyd Young, before his passing.

June earned her degree as a registered nurse in 1955 and spent much of her career teaching and mentoring future nurses, including many years instructing LPN students in Hope and Fayetteville, Arkansas. She also served for many years in the administrative office at Hudson Foods in Hope.

A woman deeply rooted in her faith, June was a longtime member of Calvary Baptist Church in Hope. After moving to Prairie Grove, she continued her faith journey with the First Baptist Church of Prairie Grove, and later, the First Baptist Church of Fayetteville.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack Floyd Young; her brother, Bill Jolly; and her parents, William Jolly and Dove Jolly Clark.

She is survived by her daughter, Cathy Kercheval, and her husband Les; her son, Joe Young, and his wife Katie; two grandsons, Michael Young and Nathan Young, and his wife Claudia.

June leaves behind a legacy of kindness, compassion, and unwavering faith. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
